Nature of Contract: (Briefly describe the general terms of the contract)

This is a state grant application to the California Department of Health Services Tobacco Control Section for the "GI Joe Generation Intervention for the Joe Camel Crowd project in the amount of $829,600 for the period of July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2004. This grant application is in draft form and currently includes standard state forms, project scope of work, and a three-year budget. The completed application will include the aforementioned documents and a detailed narrative description of the project and implementation plan. The application is due on April 12, 2001.

Approval of this item will require no local cost to the County. If the Department of Public Health receives a grant award from the CDHS/TCS as a result of this application, it will return to the Board to request an increase in appropriations and revenues of approximately $285,000 to its FY 2001-02 budget. If awarded, the Department will also include expenditures and revenues of approximately $264,700 in FY 2002-03, and $279,900 in the FY 2003-04, proposed budgets.

The application includes Department staff time in the amount of $4,200, for each of the three years, as in-kind contributions to the grant.
